

MOVIE NIGHT

at the King School!

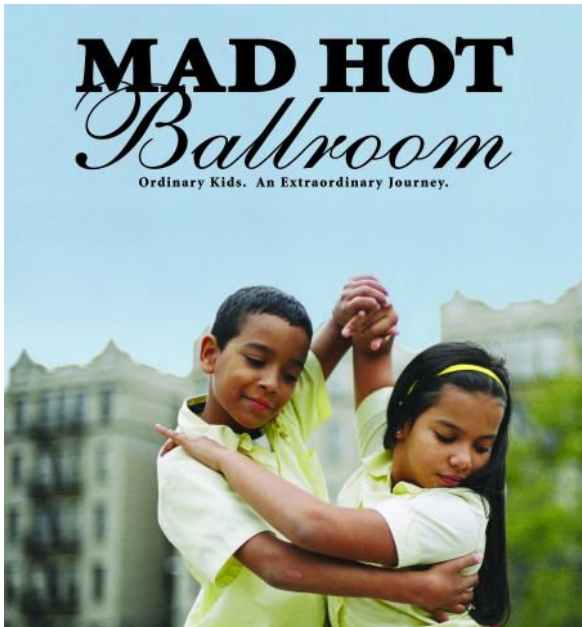

FRIDAY, APRIL 5
5:30-8PM

TWO MOVIES!
The Golden Blaze
&
Mad Hot Ballroom

THE GOLDEN BLAZE
This animated movie follows the troubles of two school kids. Fierce rivals, the two regularly butt heads over all manner of issues, ranging from the trivial to the important. The film enters the fantasy realm as an accident occurs and the two boy's fathers suddenly possess some lethal superpowers, allowing them to enter into battle at the behest of their offspring.

MAD HOT BALLROOM
Ever wonder where Mad Hot Cambridge came from?
Documentary filmmaker Marilyn Agrelo chronicles the lives of several New York City schoolchildren as they get ready for a dancing competition sponsored by the nonprofit group American Ballroom Theater. As the finals of the competition near, the students - ranging in age from 10 to 11 and coming from both poor and affluent neighborhoods - make their transformation from reticent novices to confident contestants versed in the Latin styles of foxtrot, merengue and rumba.
