ABOUT THE BOOKS & AUTHORS

CUZ by Danielle Allen

In a shattering work that shifts between a woman's private anguish over the loss of her beloved baby cousin and a scholar's fierce critique of the American prison system, Danielle Allen seeks answers to what, for many years, felt unanswerable. Why? Why did her cousin, a precocious young man who dreamed of being a firefighter and a writer, end up dead? Why did he languish in prison? And why, at the age of fifteen, was he in an alley in South Central Los Angeles, holding a gun while trying to steal someone's car? Danielle Allen, a James Bryant Conant University Professor at Harvard University and Director of Harvard's Edmond J. Safra Center for Ethics, is a political theorist who has published broadly in democratic theory, political sociology, and the history of political thought.

Everything Here is Beautiful by Mira T. Lee

Two sisters—Miranda, the older, responsible one, always her younger sister's protector; Lucia, the headstrong, unpredictable one, whose impulses are huge and, often, life changing. When their mother dies and Lucia starts hearing voices, it is Miranda who must find a way to reach her sister. Mira T. Lee's debut novel, Everything Here Is Beautiful, was selected as a Best Fiction title of 2018 by the American Booksellers Association, Amazon, and O, The Oprah Magazine, among others, and longlisted for the 2018 Goodreads Choice Awards for both Best Debut Author and Best Fiction.

Danielle and Mira are also current King parents!
